What we express when we are positive/negative !

People don't know yet who they are. Yet.

We're nature's product, of its huge force that we don't acknowledge.

We usually find the ways to avoid enhancing it, through life's tools. But also to reverse it.

The force is born, at first, by fighting back the energies inside the human mind which govern negativity. And furthermore, when we stop thinking negatively. And at last, to create the future, in spite of the bad events in the past, by weakening the force of the destructive emotions and therefore consolidating our nature towards the positive emotions.

Our DNA is our time travel machine.

It's our genes' bearer and the vehicle for humans through ether.

The studies made by a great scientist named Dulcan in the seventies, with his Russian friends, has confirmed that our DNA is molded by which emotions we choose to manifest.

So they took a DNA sample in Moscow and they moved it to Los Angeles and put in a void full with photons. Through our thoughts, the photon is freed into space as vibration and electromagnetic radiation. The DNA sample was subjected to a 30 minute movie with good emotions and it was feeling happy. Simultaneously the LA sample was dilating and growing and the photons were coming towards it and stuck. After an hour, the sample "watched" another 30 minute' movie with violent scenes this time. These created anxiety, fear and frustration. The DNA experienced anxiety and shrieked. The photons got distant.

People have the decision to use the inner forces, according to one's beliefs. The DNA will take the shape of that force.

The human mind can generate multiple positive emotions only by transformation and the choices we embrace in life. I say we should have a moment to think about what the human mind was and what it can become.
